THE PARIS PROPERTY CHRONICLES

© Kate Woodman

In Episode 8 of the Paris Property Chronicles, now available on Apple Podcasts, Podbean and World Radio Paris, my guest is Kate Woodman, a retired American living in Paris and Brittany. Kate's love of France first led her to the city of lights where she rented an apartment in the Marais district near Arts et Métiers. Although Kate adores Paris, she missed living near the ocean. After making a few trips outside of Paris, Kate decided to purchase a lovely stone cottage last year in Gommenec'h. A small farming town twenty minutes from the Atlantic coast near Paimpol and Guingamp in Brittany, where she was fortunate enough to shelter in place during the pandemic lockdown.

Since retiring to France in 2017, Kate has improved her French partially thanks to her Breton contractor, joined the Paris Choral Society and started a bilingual blog, Kate's Paris and Beyond. She has also become an avid photographer. Here are a few photos taken by Kate of La Croix Rouge, her cottage in Brittany. For more photos, please visit her blog.

Voting From Abroad

If you're a US Citizen and have not requested your ballot for the November 2020 elections, there is still time! You can register to vote and request your absentee ballot online by going to VoteFromAbroad. Once you complete the registration form, you can upload your signature or capture it with a webcam and send it back via email. You can also download a PDF version, sign it and send it back, as well. I received confirmation within 48 hours my voter registration was complete and ballot would be sent by mid-September.

If you're interested to purchase or rent a property, please visit my website or contact me directly. Be well and see you in September!
