

Newsletter Issue N°34

Pour la version en Français, cliquez ici

THE PARIS PROPERTY CHRONICLES

In Episode 7 of the Paris Property Chronicles, now available on Apple Podcasts, Podbean and World Radio Paris, my guest is Michael Edelstein, an American working in the financial services sector, who relocated to Paris in 1998. After meeting his now French husband, Stephane an artist who also works in fashion, together they purchased and renovated properties in the Saint-Blaise and Montorgueil neighbourhoods of Paris and in Camaret-sur-mer on the Atlantic coast in Brittany. The renovation on the Camaret-sur-mer project was done in collaboration with interior architect Bruno Gazin from the region, who also managed the local artisans. The renovation included new plumbing, electricity, ventilation system, flooring, kitchen, bathrooms, furnishings and household equipment. To view the stunning transformation of Michael and Stephane's seaside home, click on the following link: Camaret-sur-mer Project.

©Paris Property Chronicles

Paris Property Listings

Ramey-Montmartre. Located in the heart of Montmartre at the base of a cobblestoned footpath leading directly to the Basilica of Sacre Coeur, this lovely family apartment awaits its next owner. The apartment is housed on the 2nd floor of a well-maintained, period building with elevator measuring nearly 92m² and is composed as follows: an entry, a spacious, light-filled living room facing Southwest, an open, equipped kitchen with dining area, and a master bedroom with ensuite bathroom facing a quiet courtyard. There are two additional bedrooms, another bathroom with WC, a powder room, a laundry room, as well as a cave. Double exposure, hardwood floors and sun-drenched in a building secured by an interphone, visiophone and VIGIK badge system. Convenient to public transportation, markets and a plethora of independently owned restaurants, boutiques and commerce.

©Paris Property Chronicles

For Sale: 1.145.000€

Maison La Charité. Exquisitely restored townhouse in the heart of the Burgundy region two hours by train from Paris. The property, dating back to the 13th century, has a main house with three bedrooms and 2.5 bathrooms, a landscaped terrace and a guest house with an open living plan and en-suite bathroom. There is a vaulted wine cellar and tasting room, as well as an off-site garage. The property is secured by an alarm system and sold turnkey with all furniture and lighting.

For Sale: 339.000€

For more information, please don't hesitate to contact me. Wishing you a safe and enjoyable August wherever your travels take you!

Yolanda Robins
Founder and Principal

PARIS MAC IMMO SERVICES
yolanda@parismacimmo.com

Editor and Host
PARIS PROPERTY CHRONICLES
yolanda@parispropertychronicles.com

+33 6 75 08 55 26 (mobile/WhatsApp)

